 To you God entrusted his only Son;

Season of Creation

The following message has been written by Fr Dave Heywood on behalf of Archdiocesan Environmental Task Group

During the last eighteen months, many of us have been aghast at those who remain sceptical about the Covid-19 pandemic and see it as some sort of conspiracy. Sadly, there are plenty of people who view the constant warnings about climate change in a similar way. However, the evidence is undisputable, and the latest report from the United Nations warns us that if we don't take action now, the damage to the earth, our common home, will be irreversible. Just this month we have heard about terrible fires in Europe and the United States, as well as unprecedented flooding in various cities.

In 2015, Pope Francis issued an encyclical letter, Laudato Si', about these issues and established a Season of Creation in the Church's Year to help us to focus on the cry of the earth. The season begins this week with the 'World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation' on 1st September and runs until the feast of St Francis of Assisi on 4th October.

Saints of the Day

Saints of the Week

31st August—St Aidan & the saints of Lindisfarne. Born in Ireland, Aidan was a monk of Iona. He assisted King Oswald to convert his kingdom and established his own monastery on Lindisfarne. He preached, founded churches and monasteries and liberated slaves. St Bede describes him as a man of simplicity, poverty, love and prayer and the scriptures.

1st September—Margaret Clitherow was born in York and raised a Protestant. In 1571 she married a protestant, John Clitherow and three years later she became a Catholic. She became known as an active and outspoken Catholic; she was imprisoned for two years for not attending the Protestant church. She harboured priests against the penal law whilst her husband turned a blind eye. Margaret was convicted of harbouring priests and she was crushed to death in York 25th March 1586 aged 30 years.

St. Anne Line was born in Essex of Calvinist parents. Anne became a Catholic along with her brother at the age of twenty resulting in her being disinherited and driven away from home. In 1585 she married a disinherited convert, Roger Line who, after being imprisoned for attending Mass, was exiled to Flanders where she died. She house kept for a Jesuit priest. On 2nd February a large number assembled for Mass at her house. Anne was arrested, later tried for harbouring a priest, convicted, and executed the following day.

St Margaret Ward was born at Congleton, Cheshire going into service from an early age in London. She assisted the escape of Fr William Watson from Bridewell prison, smuggling a rope into his cell. Margaret was arrested, severely tortured, tried, convicted and executed on 30th August 1588 along with one priest and four laymen.

4th September—St Cuthbert. Saint Cuthbert was born in 634 AD at Dunbar. He was a saint of the early Northumbrian church in the Celtic tradition. He was a monk, bishop and hermit, associated with the monasteries of Melrose and Lindisfarne. He died on March 20, 687 AD, at Farne Islands.

3rd September—St Gregory the Great. Born 540 he is called Apostle of the English. He entered the civil service but in 573 he sold his enormous properties, founding seven monasteries and giving generously to the poor. After entering St Andrew's Abbey, Benedict I called him to become one of the seven deacons of Rome. He had hoped to lead some missionaries to bring the Gospel to the Anglo-Saxons having been impressed by some Anglo-Saxon slaves on sale in the Forum, but he was elected pope which he accepted reluctantly. Later he sent Augustine to England. His role in Roman Liturgy was considerable and he is associated with Gregorian Chant.
