

YEAR OF ST JOSEPH

Pope Francis shares this prayer for each of us to pray:

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace,
mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil.
Amen

CAFOD FAST DAY PRAYER

Pope Francis, 'Laudato Si' #217

Walk beside us, Lord, in the cool of the day, in the garden you have created as our common home.

Walk beside us, Lord, as the cries of the forest pierce the dawn, and flames rip through our common home.

Grant us courage, Lord, as we walk beside all those who struggle, to protect our common home.

Grant us hope, Lord, and the vision to walk dark paths in the light of a single sunbeam.

Grant us grace, Lord, to put the flourishing of all people and the wonder of your creation at the heart of all we do, as we strive to be guardians of our common home.

St Francis, pray for us

Saints of the Day

27th September - St Vincent de Paul (1581-1660) born of a peasant family in SW France, studied theology at Toulouse and was ordained at the age of 19. Captured by pirates, he was a slave in Tunisia for 2 years. Escaping to Avignon he went to Paris where he resolved to devote his life entirely to works of charity. From 1613 for 12 years, he was tutor in the household of the General of the Galleys where he did much to relieve the lot of prisoners. He founded both the Vincentians for the giving of missions especially among country folk, and (with the help of Saint Louise de Manllac) the sisters of charity, the first congregation of women without enclosure entirely devoted to the care of the sick and poor.

28th September - St Wenceslaus c. 907-29. Wenceslaus was born a Bohemian prince. After the death of his father, his mother became regent but alienated the people by her violent actions and Wenceslaus took over government. A man of great piety, he worked for the religious and cultural improvement of his people. For what appear to be political reasons his brother murdered him.

28th September - St Lawrence Ruiz. St Lawrence was a devoted husband and father of three children in the Philippines during the seventeenth century. After he was unjustly accused of murder, he fled with Christian missionaries to Japan where he was tortured for the faith and died professing: "I shall die for God, and for him I would give many thousands of lives if I had them".

29th September - Ss Michael, Gabriel and Raphael. Pope St Gregory the Great wrote: ...when angels come to minister to us, even the names by which we know are taken from their ministry—Michael means 'Who is like God', Gabriel 'Strength of God' and Raphael 'Healing of God.'

30th September - St Jerome c.342-420. Jerome was born on the Adriatic coast. Studying in Rome, he travelled to Gaul, returning home to live a ascetic life. About 370 he went to Palestine, later settling in the Syrian desert as a hermit for five years. Returning to Antioch he was ordained priest, spending some time in Constantinople. From 382-85 he was secretary to Pope Damascus. He settled in Jerusalem where he ruled a newly founded monastery and devoted the rest of his life to study and writing, his greatest achievement being the translation of the Bible into Latin, which took 30 years.

1st October - St Teresa of the Child Jesus. 1873-97. Therese of Lisieux was a French Carmelite nun who never did anything extraordinary but who performed every element of the austere Carmelite life extraordinarily well. In 1895 she had a haemorrhage, being the first sign of Tuberculosis which was to kill her two years later. She suffered heroically in silence and would have probably remained unknown if she had not, under obedience to her superiors, written a short spiritual biography (The Story of a Soul).
