

YEAR OF ST JOSEPH

Pope Francis shares this prayer for each of us to pray:

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace,
mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil.
Amen

The Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

10th October 2021 Psalter week 4

Prisons Week

For more than forty years Prisons Week has prepared prayer literature to enable the Christian community, through individuals and churches, to pray for the needs of all those affected by prisons: prisoners and their families, victims of crime and their communities, those working in the criminal justice system and the many people who are involved in caring for those affected by crime on the inside and outside of our prisons.

Prisons Week raises awareness and generates prayer. It motivates volunteers to step forward and give their time and gifts, in prisons and in their own communities. It provides an annual focus and reason for Christians to work together, building capacity and motivation to make a difference for people who are out of sight and often out of mind.

Prisons Week aims to encourage prayer and awareness of the needs of prisoners and their families, victims of offenders, prisons staff and all those who care, reflected in the Prisons Week Prayer offered throughout the week:

Lord, you offer freedom to all people.

We pray for those in prison. Break the bonds of fear and isolation that exist.

Support with your love prisoners and their families and friends, prison staff and all who care.

Heal those who have been wounded by the activities of others, especially the victims of crime.

Help us to forgive one another. To act justly, love mercy and walk humbly together with Christ in His strength and in His Spirit,

To mark this very special anniversary the Craft Groups will be selling poppies they have made after the week-end Masses. In the lead up to 11th November parishioners will be invited to purchase the poppies and complete a label with a message or naming a deceased loved one. Saints of the Day

12th October - St Wilfrid Born in Northumberland in 634, Wilfrid was educated at Lindisfarne. Elected abbot of Rippon in 658, he introduced the Roman practices in opposition to the Celtic ways of northern England. He was appointed Bishop of York. He founded many monasteries of the Benedictine order, but was obliged to appeal to Rome in order to prevent the subdivision of the diocese by St Theodore, Archbishop of Canterbury. He was forced into exile and worked to evangelise the south Saxons until his recall in 685. In 691, he had to retire again to the Midlands until Rome once again vindicated him. In 703, he retired to his monastery until his death in 709.

13th October –St Edward the Confessor. Son of King Ethelred III, Edward became King of England in 1042. His reign was peaceful and characterised by his good rule and remission of odious taxes. Edward endowed the construction of Westminster abbey, where he is buried. His piety gained him the surname “the Confessor”. He died in London in 1066.

14th October- St Calistus. Born a slave, Calistus served a convict. He was the champion of forgiveness and died for the Christian faith. In 217, he was elected pope and had a short but controversial reign. He has said to have died by being thrown down a well in 222.

15th October - St Teresa of Jesus (Avila) 1515-82. Teresa was the founder of the reformed (Discalced) Carmelites. She showed religious piety from an early age. Entering the Carmelites, she found the convent relaxed. She however deepened her practice of prayer and meditation. Her visions and other religious experiences became known by the indiscretion of those around her and she was misunderstood, ridiculed and even persecuted. Later along with St John of the Cross, she reformed the Carmelite friars. She wrote The Way of Perfection and The Interior Castle.

16th October– St Hedwig. Saint Hedwig of Silesia was born in 1174 at Andechs, Germany. She was also known as Saint Hedwig of Andechs, a member of the Bavarian comital House of Andechs, was Duchess of Silesia from 1201 and of Greater Poland from 1221 as well as High Duchess consort of Poland from 1232 until 1238. She died on October 15, 1243, Trzebnica, Poland
