

YEAR OF ST JOSEPH

Pope Francis shares this prayer for each of us to pray:

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted
his only Son;
in you Mary placed her
trust;
with you Christ became
man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace,
mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil.
Amen

Prayer for Peace Between People of All Faiths

Father of all goodness, mercy and love,
You call people of all Faiths to live and work together for the coming of your Kingdom on earth.
Make us instruments of your peace, and cultivate in us the fertile seed of your healing love.
Create in us the spirit of understanding, acceptance, and respect for one another, irrespective of our differences.
Stir within our hearts a renewed sense of reverence for all life.
Give us the vision to recognise your spirit in every human being, and help us to break the cycle of violence by realising that peace begins with me.
Amen.

Saints of the Day

26th October - Ss Chadd & Cedd

Chad, who died at Lichfield on 2nd March 672 and Cedd who died at Lastingham, Yorkshire on this day in 664 were brothers. Both were educated at Lindisfarne under Aidan. Cedd was founder of many monasteries. He was sent as a bishop to evangelise the East Saxons. He died of the plague at his monastery in Lastingham. Chad was abbot of Lastingham and then sent as bishop to Mercia, where he founded the see of Lichfield. Holiness of life, outstanding humility, and dedication to preaching the Gospel are attributed to St Chad.

28th October - Ss Simon and St Jude.

Simon, called either the Canaanite or the Zealot, disappears from history after Pentecost. One eastern source gives Edessa as the place of his death, but western tradition says that he first preached in Egypt and then joined Jude; they went together to Persia, where they suffered martyrdom. St. Jude, known as Thaddaeus, was a brother of St. James the Less, and a relative of Our Saviour. He was one of the 12 Apostles of Jesus and his attribute is a club. Images of St. Jude often include a flame around his head, which represent his presence at Pentecost, when he accepted the Holy Spirit alongside the other apostles. Another attribute is St. Jude holding an image of Christ, in the Image of Edessa. Sometimes he can also be seen holding a carpenter's ruler or is depicted with a scroll or book, the Epistle of Jude. Biblical scholars agree St. Jude was a son of Clopas and his mother Mary was the Virgin Mary's cousin. Ancient writers tell us that he preached the Gospel in Judea, Samaria, Idumaea, Syria, Mesopotamia, and Lybia. According to Eusebius, he returned to Jerusalem in the year 62, and assisted at the election of his brother, St. Simeon, as Bishop of Jerusalem. Saint Jude is not the same person as Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Our Lord and despaired because of his great sin and lack of trust in God's mercy. Jude was the one who asked Jesus at the Last Supper why He would not manifest Himself to the whole world after His resurrection. Little else is known of his life. Jude is usually identified as the author of the Epistle of Jude.

The Piety shop sells a variety of Catholic literature, cards and articles readily available to parishioners. It opens before and after each weekend mass and is now situated on the right side in the church porch.
