The Fifth Sunday of Lent
3rd April 2022 Psalter week 1

A prayer for Ukraine

Loving God,
We pray for the people of Ukraine,
for all those suffering or afraid,
that you will be close to them and protect them.

We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world
that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways
so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world.

Amen

We apologise when times and Mass intentions occasionally need to be changed at short notice for Requiem Masses etc.

Dear all,

This morning, after travelling for three days, for 1,400 miles and through six countries; our drivers arrived at the Polish border and successfully delivered the donated goods for the people of Ukraine.

Our four drivers - Mike Sharkey, Andy Coley, Dave Lyon and Chris Joynt - met Bishop Gregory Komar, and students for the priesthood from the Holy Spirit Seminary in the Ukrainian diocese of Sambir-Drohobych, who will take the goods for distribution in the Lviv region of western Ukraine.

Images of the handover and videos (including a thank you message from Bishop Gregory to the people of the archdiocese) can be found on our YouTube page.

Please continue to pray for our drivers as they start their journey home.

In terms of financial donations, we have now raised over £60,500 for the #Liverpool4Ukraine appeal.

Thank you all for your continued support, we are truly grateful for everyone's overwhelming generosity throughout this appeal.

Saints of the Day

4th April—St Isidore. St Isidore of Seville, a scholar and, for over three decades, archbishop of Seville, is widely regarded as the last of the Fathers of the Church. Born:560AD, Cartagena, and died April 4,636AD,Seville. St Isidore wrote a 20 book opus Etymologies, also known as the origins, in which he tried to record everything that was known. Published after his death in 636, it was for a thousand years considered the encyclopaedia of all human knowledge. Written in simple Latin, it was all a man needed in order to have access to everything he wanted to know about the world but never dared ask , from the 28 types of common noun to the names of women’s outer garments.

5th April– St Vincent Ferrer. Famous Dominican missionary, Vincent was born at Valencia 1350. In 1367 he entered the Dominican Order and showed great apostolic zeal. At Valladolid he converted a Rabbi, later well known as Bishop Paul of Burgos. At Salamanca Queen Yolanda of Aragon chose him for her confessor. St Vincent felt that he was the messenger of penance sent to prepare men for the judgement. His austere life was but the living expression of his doctrine. The floor was his usual bed; perpetually fasting, he arose at two in the morning to chant the office, celebrating Mass daily, afterwards preaching, sometimes three hours, and frequently working miracles. After his midday meal he would tend the sick children; at eight o’clock he prepared his sermon for the following day. He died April 5th 1419.

7th April-St John Baptist de la Salle 1651 1719. John Baptiste de la Salle was born in Rheims, France known as the Father of Modern Pedagogy. He opened three schools for poor children, introducing new teaching methods. He organised the congregation called the Brothers of the Christian schools which made great contributions to popular education. Patron of Teachers.

8th April– St Julie Billiard. St Julie Billiard was a French religious leader who founded, and was the first Superior General of the Congregation of Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur. She was born on 12th July 1751, at Cuvilly, Picardy, Beauvais, Oise, France, the sixth of seven children of Jean-Francois Billiard and Marie-Louise-Antoinette. By the age of seven, she knew the catechism by heart, and used to gather her companions around her to hear her recite it and to explain it to them. Her education was confined to the rudiments obtained at the village school kept by her uncle, Thibault Guilbiert. In spiritual things her progress was so rapid that the parish priest, Father Dongicourt, allowed her to make her First Communion and to be confirmed aged 9. She took a vow of chastity five years later. She died on 8 April 1816, at the motherhouse of her institute, Namur, Belgium, aged 64.
