Queen Elizabeth II Rest in Peace

The following statement was released by the Catholic Bishops Conference on the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Cardinal Vincent Nichols, Archbishop of Westminster and President of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England and Wales, paid tribute to The Queen:

“On 21 April 1947, on her twenty-first birthday, Princess Elizabeth said, ‘I declare before you all that my whole life whether it be long or short shall be devoted to your service.’

“Now, seventy-five years later, we are heartbroken in our loss at her death, and so full of admiration for the unfailing way in which she fulfilled that declaration.

“Even in my sorrow, shared with so many around the world, I am filled with an immense sense of gratitude for the gift to the world that has been the life of Queen Elizabeth II.

“At this time, we pray for the repose of the soul of Her Majesty. We do so with confidence, because the Christian faith marked every day of her life and activity.

“In her Millennium Christmas message, she said, ‘To many of us, our beliefs are of fundamental importance. For me the teachings of Christ and my own personal accountability before God provide a framework in which I try to lead my life. I, like so many of you, have drawn great comfort in difficult times from Christ’s words and example.’

“This faith, so often and so eloquently proclaimed in her public messages, has been an inspiration to me, and I am sure to many. The wisdom, stability and service which she consistently embodied, often in circumstances of extreme difficulty, are a shining legacy and testament to her faith.

“Our prayer is that she is now received into the merciful presence of God, there to be reunited with her beloved Prince Philip. This is the promise of our faith, and our deep consolation.

“Queen Elizabeth II will remain, always, a shining light in our history. May she now rest in peace. We pray for His Majesty the King, as he assumes his new office even as he mourns his mother. God save the King.”

Walking Group Update

The Parish Walking Group has now been formed for just over 12 months and we have enjoyed regular Saturday walks together, some close to home and others further afield. All walks are planned to include people who are not 'seasoned walkers' and there is always the opportunity for people to shorten or lengthen their walk. We will always welcome newcomers and on every walk we include a contact's name who can give further details and arrange transport if necessary.

17th September—NewBrighton—Seacombe—Vale Park—New Brighton

An easy, mostly flat walk with a small uphill section on return to New Brighton railway station. Approx 5 miles. Meet at Central Station concourse at 9.30 am. Contact Liz for further details: 07874 129947

We are looking into the possibility of a parish pilgrimage to coincide with the Liverpool week in what will be a very special and memorable event. At the moment, we are trying to find out the number of people who would be interested in going on the parish pilgrimage. If you think you might like to go please sign the list in the church porch.

Saints of the Day

14th September-Exaltation of the Holy Cross. In the Christian liturgical calendar, there are several different feasts of the Cross, all of which commemorate the cross used in the crucifixion of Jesus. While Good Friday is dedicated to the Passion of Christ and the Crucifixion, today celebrates the cross itself, as an instrument of salvation.

15th September - Our Lady of Sorrows. Our Lady of Sorrows (Latin: Beata Mario Virgo Perdolens), Our Lady of Dolours, the sorrowful Mother or Mother of Sorrows (Latin: Mater Dolorosa), and Our Lady of Piety, Our Lady of the Seven Sorrows or Our Lady of the Seven Dolours are names by which the Virgin Mary is referred to in relation to sorrows of her life.

16th September - Ss Cornelius and Cyprian. Cornelius became Pope in 251. At that time, there was dissension within the church concerning the reconciliation of those who had lapsed. Strongly supported by Cyprian, Cornelius asserted that the Church does have the power to forgive Apostates and other sinners, and admit them to communion after penance. When persecution once again was renewed in 253 he was banished and died soon after. Cyprian called him a martyr and later accounts say that he was beheaded. Cyprian(c.200-258) became bishop of Carthage three years after his conversion to Christianity. He was faced with the Decian persecution and became an exile from his diocese although he continued to rule by letter. He was later executed under Valerian.

17th September— St Robert Bellarmine, 4th October 1542- 17th September 1621 was an Italian Jesuit and a Cardinal of the Catholic Church. He was one of the most important figures in the Counter-Reformation. He was canonized in 1930 and named a Doctor of the Church. * * *

Fr Colin will be taking a well earned break for the next fortnight and so we warmly welcome again Fr Dermott Byrne Regional Representative from the Mill Hill Missionary Society who has kindly agreed to celebrate the 17th/18th and 24th/25th September weekend masses.
