Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time 30th October 2022 Psalter Week 3 Year C

THOUGHTS FOR THE 31ST SUNDAY

Tax collectors were despised for collaborating with the Roman occupiers. Many were dishonest and took more than they were due to make a larger profit. By the example of Zacchaeus, Jesus takes a person who was hated by society – a tax collector – and shows how nobody is beyond transformation and salvation.

Most of the Jews of the time wanted nothing to do with this group of people. They were pushed outside of polite society, and so their money and material goods became their only comfort. But Jesus has a different view. He sees a group who needs to be invited back into the fold. He was willing to speak with tax collectors and even dine with them in their homes.

November is the month of the Holy Souls

Saints of the Day

3rd November - St Martin de Pores 1579-1693. Martin was the illegitimate son of a Spanish grandee and a Peruvian mother. He joined the Dominicans as a lay helper. His dedication to the poor was so impressive that he was invited to make profession as a lay-brother. He would spend his nights in prayer and penance and his days in nursing the sick and plague stricken, working for his monastery as a barber, gardener and counsellor. Aged 60, he died of a violent fever. His recognition as Patron of race relations was due, not to any political or revolutionary activity but to his universal caring charity to people of all races whom he served without counting the cost.

3rd November St Winefride. Winefride lived in the 6th or 7th century near Treffynon (Holywell) in Clwyd. According to one version of her life, she was beheaded by a prince whose advances she refused, and springs of water sprang up at the place of her martyrdom. She was however, restored to life by her uncle, St Bruno, and lived the rest of her days as a nun. Holywell has remained a place of healing and pilgrimage through penal times to the present day.

4th November - St Charles Borromeo 1538-84. Charles was born of an aristocratic family. Aged 22 he gained his doctorate, by which time his uncle had become pope Pius IV and heaped honours on his nephew now living in some style in Rome. Charles desired to leave the papal court and perhaps become a monk but he was dissuaded from this. He became very influential in the final session of the council of Trent particularly in drafting the Catechism. He had considerable influence on the Counter-Reformation. In 1564 he was ordained priest and consecrated bishop and as papal legate for all Italy, he held a provincial council in Milan twice and each time he was prominent in aiding the hungry and nursing the plague stricken, not only organizing the relief work but taking a personal part in it.
