Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time 6th November 2022 Psalter Week 4 Year C

Thoughts for the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

At this point in Luke's gospel, Jesus has arrived in Jerusalem. He is teaching in the temple, from where he drove out the money changers. So the powers that be in Jerusalem are looking to trip him up. They don't appreciate having someone around who is disturbing the status quo.

The Sadducees do not believe in the resurrection. It is not found in the Torah, which is the only part of scripture which they accept. So despite descriptions of life after death in other books of Jewish scripture, they reject it. They are attempting to discredit Jesus as a teacher.

Jesus turns the tables on them by asking them a question in response. And they don't have an answer. They were looking at the next life as just another version of how we are living now. But Jesus tells them that it will be different. Heaven might not be what we are picturing in our minds!

Journey with the Northern Saints Pilgrimage

A big thank you to all of the pilgrims who fully entered into the spirit of the pilgrimage and for the great kindness and generosity shown to Father Colin Brenda and Rob. Your gift was unexpected but gratefully appreciated.

Saints of the Day

Dedication of St. John Lateran: 9th November. As the cathedral church of the diocese of Rome, Saint John Lateran is the cathedral of the pope, the bishop of Rome. Long before the Vatican was constructed, Saint John Lateran was the home of the popes and the focal point for the Church. Saint Francis visited Pope Innocent at the Lateran Palace.

Saint Leo the Great: 10th November. Saint Leo the Great held strong convictions about the importance of the Bishop of Rome and of the Church. He viewed the Church as the presence of Christ in the world. Dedicated to building up the Church in all areas, Saint Leo the Great was also a man of deep spiritual convictions.

Saint Martin of Tours: 11th November. Saint Martin of Tours is often depicted as a soldier mounted on a horse sharing his cloak with a poor man. He became a monk and then a bishop, but he never lost his love for the poor. He spent a good deal of energy fighting for the Church, and for mercy toward heretics.

Saint Josaphat : November 12. Saint Josaphat dedicated his life to healing the split within the Ruthenian Church. While he made some headway, sadly the division extends to today. But his life and efforts were not in vain, for both influenced many Orthodox to be united with Rome.
