Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time 13th November 2022 Psalter Week 1 Year C

A Prayer of Remembrance

Almighty and eternal God,
from whose love in Christ
we cannot be parted,
either by death or life:
hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day;
fulfil in them the purpose of your love; and bring us all,
with them, to your eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Solemn Forty Hours Exposition

The Solemn Forty Hours of Exposition will take place from Thursday 17th—Saturday 19th November, and is an opportunity to gather as a community before the Blessed Sacrament and to pray before the Lord in solemn adoration. It gives us time to deepen our appreciation of the importance of the mystery of the eucharist in our lives

Please put your name down on the rota for Hours of Watching.

We apologise when times and Mass intentions occasionally need to be changed at short notice for Requiem Masses

SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING—YOUTH SUNDAY/WORLD YOUTH DAY

On the Solemnity of Christ the King the Church recognises and celebrates young people in our local church communities, whether that be through school, at home, or of course in church. For us, in England and Wales, there will be a number of resources made available for all settings including home, school, parish, university and individual.

Everyone is invited to join in with World Youth FUNday on Friday, 18th November, a live interactive day of quizzes, prayer, input and activities for schools and families, all live streamed on the CYMFed YouTube channel. Resources that can be used in your parish community, at home or in school can be found at WorldYouthSunday.com.

Animate will also publish their second Youth Sunday 'Car Pool Karaoke' on the Animate You Tube channel as we make our way around the diocese talking to friends in schools and parishes - this year, on the 100th anniversary of the Lourdes pilgrimage, especially about Lourdes.

Beyond today there are other opportunities for young people to be more involved in the life of the Church and more information can be found at animateyouth.org on: the annual Lourdes pilgrimage, training as a Minister of Holy Communion, a trip to Wembley Arena for the Flame Congress.

Tongues of Fire Sunday, 27th November @ 4:00 p.m.

The Tongues of Fire Music Ministry Team (which includes many who have played in both Our Lady's and Christ the King music groups) is leading an Advent service of words and song (but mostly song) and all are welcome.

Tongues of Fire have visited us before to rave reviews, so don't miss this opportunity to start your spiritual journey towards Christmas! (The service lasts about 50 minutes.) Why not invite someone who hasn't been to church for a while? We look forward to seeing you there!

Saints of the Day

16th November: St Edmund of Canterbury 1175 –1240. Known as Edmund of Abingdon, he was a merchant then became a monk. Teaching arts at Oxford University he was the first Oxford master to be canonised. He was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury in 1233. Although he did not find administration and politics to his liking, he became a notable and effective reforming bishop. He died in France on his way to see the pope.

16th November: St Margaret of Scotland, or Margaret of Wessex, was an English Princess born in Hungary to Princess Agatha of Hungary and English Prince Edward the exile around 1045. Malcolm Canmore III, the king of Scotland, welcomed Margaret and her family and put them under his protection. He soon fell deeply in love with the beautiful and kind princess. Margaret and Malcolm became married in 1070 at the castle of Dunfermline. Together they had eight children, six sons and two daughters. In 1093, Malcolm and their oldest son were killed during the battle of Aynwick. Already ill and worn from a life full of austerity and fasting, Margaret passed away four days after her husband, on November 16th, 1093. Her body was buried before the high altar at Dunfermline.

17th November: St Hilda. Born 614, Hilda was baptised in 627 at the age of thirteen by St Paulinus of York. Hilda lived as a lay woman until age 33 when she became a Benedictine nun at the monastery in Chelles in France. She became abbess of Hartlepool and then Whitby which under her leadership became a centre of learning, literature and arts. Hilda followed the Celtic liturgy and rule, but many houses had adopted the continental Benedictine rule and Roman liturgy. Hilda conveyed a synod in 664 to establish a single rule. The synod settled on the Roman and Benedictine and they were adopted throughout England.

17th November: St Hugh of Lincoln. Hugh was born in Burgundy about 1135 and early in life became a Carthusian. When the Charterhouse at Whitham, near Frampton was founded, he was sent by King Henry II to take charge of it. At first he refused to become Prior because people had been evicted from their homes to make room for the new buildings. Only when they had been compensated did he assume office. In 1186 he was appointed to Lincoln, the largest diocese in the country, which had been vacant for 16 years. He was active and lively and proved a good bishop. Injustice quickly aroused his anger.

Rite of Catholic Initiation in Adults (RCIA)

Mary's Meals – Double the Love

From 1 November 2022 to 31 January 2023, donations made to Mary's Meals will be doubled by a group of generous supporters, up to £1.5million. Today, we face some of our greatest challenges yet in a world devastated by conflict, food insecurity and the cost of living crisis, which we know is affecting people here in the UK as well as in the countries where we work. With Double the Love, your donation will be matched and your kindness will go even further – meaning we can reach even more desperately hungry children with a life-changing school meal. There are many ways to get involved, find out more at marysmeals.org.uk
