Third Sunday in Ordinary time Psalter Week 3 Year A 2023

Theme for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A inspire us to understand that Jesus has saved us and we are called to spread that good news to others. In the first reading we hear that Jesus ushers in a new era of freedom and salvation. The psalm reaffirms that the Lord is our salvation. In the 2nd reading Paul reminds us that we must be united in our efforts to evangelize. And in the Gospel we hear Jesus calling Simon Peter and Andrew to join him in spreading the Good News.

Thoughts for the Third Sunday

LIGHT AND DARKNESS

Zebulun and Naphtali were part of the Northern Kingdom of Israel, which was destroyed when the Assyrians invaded. The people were sent into exile. Even in this time of darkness, God provided hope and light.

The time of Jesus was also a time of darkness, with oppression by the Romans. Jesus provides light in this time by proclaiming the Kingdom of God.

We apologise when times and Mass intentions occasionally need to be changed at short notice for Requiem Masses

Saints of the Day

25th January - The Conversion of St Paul. The Conversion of Paul the Apostle, was, according to the New Testament, an event in the life of Paul the Apostle that led him to cease persecuting early Christians and to become a follower of Jesus. It is normally dated by researchers to D 33-36

26th January - Ss Timothy and Titus. Both first century Bishops, they were disciples and co-workers of St Paul. Timothy accompanied Paul on his travels and was put in charge of the church at Ephesus whereas Titus was in charge of the church in Crete. Titus was Paul's messenger to various Christian communities and was his secretary. To these two, Paul wrote his Pastoral Epistles.

27th January– St Angela Merici 1474-1540. Angela was founder of the Ursuline nuns. Born near Lake Garda, Italy, she was an orphan. She became a Franciscan tertiary and devoted herself with several companions to the education of poor girls. In 1535 they dedicated themselves under the patronage of St Ursula, but they took no vows and wore lay clothes. The formal organisation of this sisterhood into a congregation came only in 1565, as the Church authorities were not prepared to approve, until then, Angela's novel concept of unenclosed and mobile religious sisters.

CAFOD's Big Lent Walk

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday on 22nd February. CAFOD's challenge is to walk 200km over 40 days to help people overcome poverty.

You can walk, run, skip, or stroll your 200km, (5k a day) when and where you choose, alone or with friends.

You'll be among thousands of people up and down England and Wales conquering your 200km targets in time for Easter.

Remember: every step you take is a step closer to a fairer world.

Let's tell poverty to jog on! Why not form a group in the parish who will walk together once a week?
