TRINITY SUNDAY 4th June 2023 Psalter Week 1 Year A

Mystery and Unity

As a Catholic, the doctrine of the Holy Trinity is one of the foundational teachings that shapes our understanding of God. At the core of this doctrine is the recognition that God exists eternally in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This unity of the Godhead is something that we cannot fully comprehend with our finite human minds, but it is a mystery that we must accept and embrace as essential to our faith.

One of the most striking aspects of the Holy Trinity is the unity that exists between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Despite being distinct persons, they are united in their nature and purpose. This unity is not something that is forced or artificial, but rather it flows naturally from the perfect love that exists within the Godhead.

As Catholics, we are called to reflect this same unity in our own lives. Just as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are united in love, we are called to love one another and to work together in unity for the sake of the Gospel. This means setting aside our own individual interests and desires in order to serve the greater good of the Church and the world.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

5th June - St Boniface born as Winfrith possibly at Crediton (Devon), 675, Boniface was killed in the Netherlands on this day in 754. After several years as monk and teacher at Nursling (Hampshire), he went to evangelise the Germanic peoples. Ordained bishop, he was given wide ranging papal commissions throughout Germany and Gaul. With much support from England in materials and personnel, he founded monasteries and established dioceses, presided at synods, and liaised with kings. He is remembered as a determined missionary, and as a church organiser and reformer, whose work shaped the future of Europe. He is buried in his abbey in Fulda, and is honoured as apostle of Germany.

6th June - St Norbert. Saint Norbert was born in Xanten, in what is now Germany, he turned from a worldly life, became a monk and an itinerant preacher, and later founded the Premonstratensians. Through his example and preaching, he worked very hard to implant the religious and moral reforms of Pope Gregory VII. He later became Archbishop of Magdeburg and died in 1134.

9th June - St Columba Columba was born in Donegal of the Royal Ui Neill clan, about 521 and died at Iona in 597. He founded monasteries at Derry, Durrow, and possibly Kells. In 565 he left Ireland, with twelve companions for the island of Iona of south west Scotland, given to him for a monastery by the ruler of the Irish Dalraida. From Iona he converted much of Western Scotland, his followers taking the Gospel to northern England. Writing a century after his death, Adomnan (then abbot of Iona) paints a picture of Columba as tall, of powerful build with impressive presence; skilled as a scholar, poet, scribe, spiritual guide and ruler with a fearless commitment to God's cause. Ardent, and sometimes harsh, he mellowed with age.

9th June - St Ephrem. C. 306 –73. Ephrem, called the "Harp of the Holy Spirit" is the classic Doctor of the Syrian Church. As deacon and monk at Edessa he vigorously combated heresies of his time. There he wrote works and hymns that were later incorporated into the liturgy and translated into various languages. In 370 he visited St Basil whose brother, St Gregory of Nyassa, wrote in his praise. In 372 he organized charity to victims of famine and died soon afterwards in his cave.
