The Baptism of the Lord 11th January 2026 Year A

Thank You

I would like to offer a huge word of thanks to all those who were able to help get the church ready for our Christmas celebrations. This was down to the hard work of those who willingly gave of their time in order to put up the trees, arrange the flowers, erect the cribs and then clean up afterwards. Thank you so much for your willing service to our parish. Thanks also to our volunteer stewards who continue to do an amazing job in church and make it a safe place to worship.

Lastly, myself, deacons Adrian and Sean, Brenda and Robert want to offer our thanks for all the cards, gifts and good wishes received over Christmas. Your outpouring of generosity is so overwhelming and your continued friendship, support and encouragement truly appreciated.

May God watch over you and bless your families throughout this New Year. Thanks and God Bless Fr Colin

Parish Development Strategy

As we step into 2026, our Archdiocese is blessed with exciting opportunities to reflect Christ's presence and respond with hope to the challenges of our modern world here in Liverpool. These times invite us to embrace renewed faith, vibrant mission, creative action, and deep trust in God's guidance.

Today marks the beginning of an inspiring Archdiocesan-wide discernment process within our deanery—centered on mission and shared responsibility—where every voice and every prayer truly matters. This journey builds on the grace of our Synod 2020 and the Archdiocesan Pastoral Plan, calling us forward together. Please take a leaflet this weekend to learn more, and know that we will keep you regularly updated on how you, your parish, and our whole community can be actively involved.

Archbishop John Sherrington

Saints of the Day

11th January Elizabeth Prout also known as Mother Mary Joseph of Jesus, (2 September 1820 – 11 January 1864) was the founder of the religious congregation of the Sisters of the Cross and Passion, was born in Coleham, Shrewsbury, England on 2 September 1820. Little is known of her early life, save that she was born to an Anglican mother and a father who was a lapsed Catholic. Elizabeth was baptised at St Julian's Church, Shrewsbury, and brought up in the Anglican tradition. Her parents, Edward Prout and his wife Ann nee Yates, relocated the family to seek work at Stone, Staffordshire, where her father worked as a journeyman cooper in Joule's Brewery by 1841. In her early twenties she converted to Catholicism under the influence of the Passionist missionary to England, Dominic Barberi, as well as another Passionist, Father Gaudentius Rossi. Her conversion was met with great negativity by her parents (both of whom were later converted to Catholicism). Prout began to feel a strong attraction to the religious life and Rossi advised her to join the sisters of the Infant Jesus in Northampton. In 1848 Prout joined this community where she initially found great happiness. Her health however was poor, and the sisters did not think her strong enough for their work. After spending some time with her parents, Prout again appealed to Rossi for advice. At that time the Passionist was giving a parish mission at St Chad's in Cheetham Hill, Manchester, and it was there that Rossi advised Prout to make her home, teaching in the parish school.

12th January– St Aelred of Rievaulx. Born in 1110, Aelred entered the recently founded abbey of Rievaulx in 1134. Delicate in health, he followed the austere regime and became so highly thought of that he was chosen as envoy to Rome. In 1143 he became abbot of Revesby and four years later, abbot of Rievaulx. Vocations increased to 150 monks and 500 lay brothers, the largest abbey in England. Aelred showed sensitivity and gentle holiness, with a strong emphasis on charity and spiritual friendship. He later suffered agony from a kidney stone. He died in 1167.

13th January St Hilary Bishop and doctor of the Church. Born in Poitiers, Hilary was elected bishop of that city in the year 350. He combated the Arians relentlessly, for which reason he was exiled by the Emperor Constantine. For the purpose of strengthening the Catholic faith and interpreting sacred scripture, he published works which are outstanding in their wisdom and learning.

14th St Kentigern, Bishop, Secondary Patron of the Archdiocese. Kentigern, also called Mungo, was a missionary to the Britons in Strathclyde and was consecrated their bishop, where he vigorously defended the Church against Pelagianism. Driven out by persecution, he preached North West England and Wales, but eventually returned to Scotland and was buried in Glasgow.

The parish will be in touch after the registration period ends on the 13 February 2026 (you will not be contacted beforehand) with details about meetings in your local area. You will likely be contacted after Easter so please do not worry if you are not contacted immediately. If you have any queries, please contact the parish priest.

Heartfelt Thank You

Collette, Kate, Ollie, Emmie, Betty and all the family would like to thank everyone for their prayers, cards, flowers, messages of sympathy, offers of help but most of all for the love and support we have received from our Parish family since Ellen passed away.

We were blown away by the number of people who attended her requiem and are so grateful for everyone who helped to make it a truly wonderful celebration, there are so many of you to thank from Rob and Brenda, Ann and all the music group and choir, Clare Hulme, John and Maureen Barr, the bereavement team, altar servers Rose and Patrick, Deacon Adrian, Ann from the Parish Centre, Richard and Shannon Jenkins, St Paschal Baylon, Our Lady of Good Help, Christ the King, and St Julie's schools.

The total raised so far in Ellen's memory is £1344 which is going to help the Turner's Syndrome Support Society, a charity close to her heart.

Special thanks must go to Fr Colin, who despite his own grief at the loss of a friend, led us in a wonderful tribute to a truly Beloved Daughter and Mother. God Bless you all.

Peace Sunday

Peace Sunday will be held on Sunday 18th January. The Bishops' Conference encourage us all the use the day to reflect on the Pope's message for the World Day of Peace on the 1st January. On Peace Sunday, we will be taking a collection to support Pax Christi's work which includes promoting nonviolence as a way of resolving conflict, advocacy and campaigning for peace and peace education in schools. If you are unable to give on the day then you can also donate via their website.
